Our Mother

Our mother is so precious,
so patient, kind and true;
We know that when you meet her,
you'll love her dearly too.
Her hair is so soft and silvery,
eyes a heavenly hue.
Her smile is like a rosebud,
when bright with morning dew.

We thank our Heavenly Father
For her whom He did give.
For hands of love that labored
and taught us how to live.
Yes, many years she labored
to make our childhood bright;
And, now, though we are older,
she's still our guiding light.

She loves our blessed Savior
and follows Him each day,
And prays that we her children
will walk the narrow way.
When Jesus comes in glory
to take His saints above.
May we all, our dear ones,
be there with her we love.
